Attention Newer Dancers & Seasoned Dancers That Just Want To Take It Easy

Be sure to check out the “Smoothie” hall at the Festival. This will be mainstream & plus tips that are geared toward newer dancers and seasoned dancers that would like to dance at a little slower pace. This is a great way for new dancers to get exposure to several different callers. Please note that NO BOOTS will be allowed on dance floor in this hall.

ATTENTION: SOLO DANCER

How do you go about getting a partner at a dance? Here are some tips for dancing a lot more tips:

1. Get there early. Many dancers plan their whole night of tips at the beginning.
2. Don't be afraid to ask. You never know until you ask.
3. Display your SOLO and levels of dance proudly! Badges, ribbons, and the like that tell everyone you need a partner and what levels and positions you can dance.
4. Be a good dancer and a good listener. You're more likely to be asked again if you prove yourself on the dance floor. The best way to be a top-notch dancer is to dance as often as you can.
5. Don't be shy: just be friendly and introduce yourself
6. Remember to have a partner before you get on the dance floor – don't take a spot that a ready couple could have filled. Take this time to ask someone for the next tip!

Solo Dancers, we have made finding dance partners at HASSDA so easy!

Look for the sign in each Hall.

Solos, please gather around the sign so other dancers will know you are wanting to DANCE DANCE DANCE!

Already have a dance partner; but they would like to sit one out? Ask a solo to dance!

Pick up your RIBBONS at the Registration Desk!

The colorful RIBBONS will let other dancers know you are looking for a dance partner.

The pink, blue, and purple ribbons will let other dancers know what position and level your dancing abilities are.

Making it easier to find just the right partner for the next tip!

Pink dances the lady's position, Blue dances the man's position, and Purple dances EITHER position! Ribbon Up and DANCE!

Already have a dance partner? We ask that you wear our Red Partnered Ribbon. Remember you are always welcome to ask a solo to dance if your partner would like to "sit one out".

“Dances With Most Partners Contest”

Heart of America Singles Square Dance Association (HASSDA) focuses on solos dancing! In the past to encourage solo dancers to dance with many different partners we have given a free registration to the next year's Festival to the person that dances with the most partners. (Each tip counts as 1 partner. Each partner may only be counted once per day.) There will be one free registration awarded on both Friday and Saturday night.

DON'T FORGET TO PICK UP YOUR DANCE CARDS AT THE REGISTRATION DESK, as you will need your partner's signature for verification of your lists.

PS. Only Square Dance Tips qualify for the “Dances With Most Partners” contest.

A FEW NOTICES FOR THIS YEAR'S FESTIVAL

1. Covid Restrictions: The city of St. Joseph, MO does not have any gathering numbers or face mask restrictions at this time. Therefore, face masked are not required, but you are more than welcome to wear them if it makes you feel more comfortable. We will also have plenty of hand sanitizer available.
2. Water Bottles: We are asking that dancers bring their own covered water bottles (please label with your name so they don't get mixed up). We will have Ice Water stations in the dance halls for refilling.
3. Dance Floor Restrictions: The “Smoothie/Main Hall” will be a basketball court laid over concrete, so there will be no boots or drinks allowed on this floor. There will be plenty of room around the dance floor in this hall for gathering or resting. The Plus Hall and the DBD/Advance Hall will be tile floors, so there are no restrictions on footwear or drinks in these halls.

We have some great vendors lined up for the 2021 HASSDA Festival

Lost Art Engraving and Calligraphy – Owned by Vicki Hills

She is the new owner of the former North Forty Engraving. If you have badge, bar, or dangle needs, you are in luck!

Heartland Market – Owned by Jackie Lineville of Broken Bow, NE.

She carries beautiful long skirts, tops, vests and other clothing. She has been to many festivals, so we know you are familiar with her wonderful wares!

Please be sure to stop by both vendors and check them out during the festival!
