A Word from Our President, Kelly Bockover

Hello HASSDA Members:

Well, the 2023 HASSDA Festival has passed, and what a good time was had by all. I would like to thank the caller/cuer staff (Bob Asp, Jet Roberts, Charlie Robertson, Cathy & Fred Fisher) for doing a wonderful job. We heard only good things from our dancers about the job you all did. Thanks as well to the Springdale Chamber of Commerce, and the NW Arkansas Convention Center/ Holiday Inn Hotel. They worked so well with us, and we only heard compliments from our dancers on the Venue & Hotel. Remember, the 2024 festival will be in the same GREAT location, so if you missed this one, be sure to make your reservations for next year. Also, a big thank you to all the dancers that showed up to help with laying down and taking up the flooring. It is quite a chore, and your help was greatly appreciated. Lastly, I personally want to thank the HASSDA Board Members and all the dancers that attended the festival. We could not manage these festivals without you all.

I would like to share this Facebook post from a member in my square dance club.

He and his wife Kathy attended the 2023 HASSDA Festival in Springdale, AR this year. I think this is a very well written piece, and just thought our HASSDA members might like to have a look. Please remember that even though HASSDA is a singles association, we do welcome all dancers (singles, solo couples, and married couples). So, if you would like to share some dances with singles like Steve and Kathy do, or just dance together, just know that you are welcome.

Be thankful friends for what/who you have. I spent the weekend with 200 wonderful square dance friends. While the club is "for singles" they invite couples because more is always better. About 2/3's of the dancers were single, mostly ladies. Of them, I'd guess most were widows. Covid really took a toll on the square dance family. So many wonderful people were there enjoying our activity but in need of a dance partner, something I've taken for granted. I don't take Kathy for granted, but I realized I have taken the blessing of having a partner for granted. When I was released from the hospital after my battle with covid, they asked what my goal was. I said to square dance with my wife. They laughed and said maybe next year. 6 weeks later I showed up for our first lesson with a backpack and oxygen tank. 3 months later we were dancing every chance we got. While we loved every minute of it, too often we forgot how blessed WE WERE to be able to share it. The music started and we squared up. I danced a LOT with these ladies this weekend and I was blessed more than them. I loved being part of that smile on their face. (It is odd for me to think of me "blessing them", I know). They wanted to dance. They wanted to share those 10 minutes with somebody. One of the great things about dancing is that we have to concentrate on the caller so for those 10 minutes, you aren't thinking of anything else. All your worries melt away. You're just dancing. They weren't looking for life partners or even romance, just a dance. Just that 10 minutes of joy. It was so fun being part of it. Kathy is learning the guy's part so that I can do better about dancing with as many ladies as I can. It blesses me more than I ever knew. If you are blessed to have your partner with you, remember it is a BLESSING. If you do not, come see me in a square. I'd love to dance with you. If you know somebody that's alone, invite them to share life with you. It's awkward. I know it. They know it. Be awkward. By: Steve Bean
